GUIDELINES IN SELLING MERCHANDISE

for Accredited Student Organizations Only

Background

- Student organizations shall be allowed to sell merchandise inside the campus given that they comply with the guidelines stated below.
- The Students Success Office shall be in charge of checking that these rules have been complied with before the organization can start selling their products.

Product Guidelines

Health and Safety

1. Products must not pose direct threat to health and safety when used reasonably.
2. Food and beverage products must meet required standard levels of safety.
3. Safety instructions must be clearly stated, including warnings against possible misuse or abuse.

Branding and Design

1. The use of the CIT University brand must be compliant to the standard brand elements.
2. The use of the Wildcats brand must be compliant to the standard brand elements.
3. Use of foul or obscene language, symbols, graphics, and designs is strongly prohibited.
4. The use of university colors is highly encouraged.

Others

1. In case of defects and other issues, the organization shall have a reasonable return/cancellation policy especially for pre-order items.
2. Final product approval shall be subject to the evaluation of the Student Success Office, with the approval of the branding and design by the Marketing Director.

Pricing Guidelines

1. Choosing of supplier shall be subject to bidding or canvassing. The official supplier shall be chosen by the majority of the officers of the organization.
2. Bidding/Canvassing should be properly documented, with report and sample product/picture submitted together with the MSP.
3. Uniform pricing is encouraged for commonly distributed product categories such as: shirts, keychains, polo shirts, bookmarks, etc.
4. A standard mark-up per product category shall be established by the Office of Student Affairs assisted by the Business Administration Department.
5. A portion of the sales shall go to Community Extension Services. The portion shall be 10% of the mark-up price.

Promotion Guidelines

1. All promotional materials shall be approved by the Student Success Office assisted by the Marketing Director.
2. Collaterals shall contain the correct price of each merchandise, place of distribution, and selling duration, among others.
